AAPOL Awards $11,000 in Scholarships to Local High School Students

The Afro-American Police Officer's League (AAPOL) raised $11,000 and decided to make good use of it. AAPOL handed out over a dozen scholarships to local high school students to assist with tuition. In addition, the Fox 26 News, Isiah Carr was also in attendance to interview President Carr and scholarship recipients. As quoted by President Carr, "As you know there's a lot of negative energy regarding law enforcement. From what we see in the news or from our personal experiences, But we (AAPOL) wanted to be a light in this time. So investing in our youth, giving out scholarship, is something we know is important."

2018-2019 1st Annual AAPOL Scholarship Fundraiser & Gala

The Afro-American Police Officers League is hosting its 1st Annual Awards and Scholarship Fundraising Gala at the Buffalo Soldiers Museum of Houston located at 3816 Caroline St. on Friday, October 19, 2018 at 7P.M.

Officers will be recognized in areas such as; Exceptional Achievement in Extraordinary Valor, Crime Prevention, Investigations, Community Outreach, Lifesaving, an Innovative Approaches to Police Service.

Awards will be given for: Officer of the Year, Outstanding Patrol of the Year, Outstanding Investigator of the Year, Outstanding Supervisor of the Year and Humanitarian Award.

All officers and adult family members are invited to attend. Ticket cost is $50.00 and AAPOL member tickets purchased prior to October 1, 2018 are $40.00. Door prizes, access to the museum exhibits, raffles and fun entertainment will fill the evening.

Empowering our Youth!!!

Engaging Law Enforcement and Enhancing Communities. TAPS Academy students are given the tools to become better citizens in their communities. AAPOL members including President Carr and Det. Wilkerson-Wyche spoke to students at Bruce Elementary School. AAPOL had excellent bonding opportunity with these brilliant students.

AAPOL appreciate their dedicated and commitment to the organization. Thanks for representing us well!!!
